

Figure 1. Drill hole KL15-001. Alteration in Athabasca sandstone, including pervasive bleaching and destruction of all primary sedimentary textures in sandstone, and desilicification of sandstone matrix to loose sand. This alteration occurs from the top to the bottom of the Athabasca sandstone in the drill hole, from overburden to just above the basement unconformity.